

MGB RECRUITMENT

INTRODUCTION

The MGB's recruitment process is transparent, non-partisan and competence-based. Within this competence-based approach, are efforts to encourage diversity among the individuals who submit their names for consideration. The Municipal Government Board is not currently recruiting.

See Also:

- Government Policy and Agency Recruitment and Appointment Principles

THE APPOINTMENT PROCESS

Recommendations on appointments are made based on interview results. The decision for appointments to the MGB rests with the Minister and Cabinet. Members are appointed by Order in Council.

See Also:

- Information on the MGB recruitment process

TIME COMMITMENT

MGB members hear a high volume of appeals. Significant time commitments are required during certain months – typically May through September, when MGB members are often required to work fifteen to twenty days per month.

MEMBER TRAINING

Board members are recruited based on their experience and expertise. Initial training for newly appointed members involves approximately fifteen days of formal orientation and instruction with both Municipal Affairs and in house with the MGB.

Members continue to develop their skills from hands-on active experience on conducting hearings, decision making and writing. Members commit to workshop training sessions held periodically throughout each year.

See Also:

- Assessment Appeals Training for MGB members

 RETURN TO – MGB Home.